Report delivery Article 5

(1) Credit institutions shall for the purposes of supervision deliver to the Croatian National Bank compiled reports and integral reports in the manner governed by the Instructions for preparing and delivering supervisory reports.

(2) Credit institutions shall submit data for compiling reports in the manner prescribed by the Decision on statistical and supervisory reporting.

(3) The Croatian National Bank shall prepare compiled reports referred to in this Decision, in accordance with the Instructions for preparing and delivering supervisory reports.

(4) Compiled reports shall be deemed to be delivered by a credit institution to the Croatian National Bank, if a credit institution has submitted the data in a manner referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, on the basis of which the Croatian National Bank then prepares compiled reports in accordance with paragraph (3) of this Article.

(5) Following the submission of data required for the preparation of compiled reports, in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Article, the Croatian National Bank shall prepare the initial and final compiled reports of credit institutions and shall deliver them to the credit institution. The Croatian National Bank shall compile initial reports prior to the time limit for delivery and shall compile final reports after the expiry of that time limit.

(6) Credit institutions shall be deemed to have delivered compiled reports within the time limits prescribed in Article (9) of this Decision if the following conditions are met:

- 1) the data for compiling reports are received by the Croatian National Bank within the time limits prescribed in Article (9) of this Decision and
- 2) the data submitted by the credit institution comply with all of the controls prescribed by the Instructions for statistical and supervisory reporting.

(7) Credit institutions shall be deemed to have delivered integral reports within the time limit prescribed in Article (9) of this Decision if the following conditions are met:

- 1) the reports are received by the Croatian National Bank within the time limits prescribed in Article (9) of this Decision
- 2) the reports comply with the technical requirements prescribed by the Instructions for preparing and delivering supervisory reports
- 3) where the reports are subject to validation rules referred to in the Instructions for preparing and delivering supervisory reports, the reports comply with all of the said rules; and
- 4) where the reports are subject to validation rules published by the European Banking Authority on its website, applicable on the relevant reporting date, the reports comply with all of the said rules.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (6), item (2) and paragraph (7), items (3) and (4) of this Article, the Croatian National Bank may, in justified cases, depart from the application of certain controls of data submitted by a credit institution, for the purpose of ensuring correct and timely reporting.

Complaints against compiled reports

Article 6

(1) Credit institutions may file, within 5 working days of the receipt of the final compiled report, which the Croatian National Bank has compiled on the basis of the submitted data, a complaint against the contents of the final compiled report. The complaint shall be filed in writing and electronically to the addresses specified in the Instructions for preparing and delivering supervisory reports.

(2) The Croatian National Bank shall make a written statement, within 5 working days of the receipt of the complaint, on the complaint against the contents of the final compiled reports of a credit institution referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.

(3) The complaint referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article may be filed only by the management board of the credit institution or a person authorised in writing by the management board.

(4) If a complaint is filed by a person authorised for that purpose by a credit institution's management board, the Croatian National Bank shall consider the complaint only provided a copy of the relevant written authorisation is enclosed.

(5) If a credit institution does not file a complaint against the contents of the final compiled reports within the time limit referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, it shall be considered to have agreed with their contents.

(6) If the Croatian National Bank has accepted the complaint of the credit institution referred to paragraph (1) of this Article, it shall prepare the amendments to the final compiled reports in accordance with the accepted complaint and shall deliver them to the credit institution. The credit institution shall no longer have the right of complaint against these reports and the credit institution shall be considered to have agreed with their contents.

Reporting requirements and reference dates for reports that are part of the common reporting framework for credit institutions in the European Union

Article 7

(1) Significant credit institutions that are not small and non-complex institutions within the meaning of Article 4, paragraph (1), item (145) of Regulation (EU) 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 (Text with EEA relevance) (OJ L 176, 27. 6. 2013; hereinafter referred to as 'Regulation (EU) No 575/2013') shall deliver the reports referred to in Article 4, paragraph (2), items (1) to (9), item (12) and item (14) of this Decision, on the basis laid down in paragraph (4) of this Article.

(2) Significant credit institutions that are not small and non-complex institutions within the meaning of Article 4, paragraph (1), item (145) of Regulation (EU) 575/2013 and that are planning a significant restructuring of their balance sheets shall deliver the reports referred to in Article 4, paragraph (2), items (10) and (11) of this Decision, on the basis laid down in paragraph (4) of this Article.

(3) Significant credit institutions that are small and non-complex institutions within the sense of Article 4, paragraph (1), item (145) of Regulation (EU) 575/2013 shall deliver the reports referred to in Article 4, paragraph (2), items (1) to (8), item (13) and item (14) of this Decision, on the basis laid down in paragraph (4) of this Article.

(4) Credit institutions shall apply the provisions of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article on a consolidated basis for a group of institutions in accordance with Title XXII of the Credit Institutions Act. The reports prepared on a consolidated basis shall be referred to as consolidated reports on funding plans (FK). Where the credit institution is not subject to the requirement to prepare consolidated reports, it shall apply the provisions of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article on an individual basis. The reports prepared on an individual basis shall be referred to as unconsolidated reports on funding plans (FN).

(5) Credit institutions shall deliver reports on funding plans to the Croatian National Bank with an annual frequency, with the balance as at 31 December of the previous calendar year.

(6) By way of derogation from paragraph (4) of this Article, credit institutions that are not EU parent credit institutions shall report on the liquidity coverage requirement (LCR) and net stable funding requirement (NSFR) referred to in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (3) of this Decision on an individual basis. Credit institutions that are EU parent credit institutions shall report on these requirements on a consolidated basis.

(7) For the purposes of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article, significant credit institutions are all credit institutions whose average amount of assets at the end of the previous three business years reported in audited financial statements exceeds the amount of one billion euro (that is, for reference dates before the introduction of the euro as the official currency of the Republic of Croatia, 7 billion kuna).

(8) Credit institutions shall deliver reports on financial information to the Croatian National Bank as at the reference dates referred to in Article 2, paragraph (1), items (b), (c) and (d) and paragraph (2) of the Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2021/451.

Paragraph (7) has been partly amended pursuant to the provision of Article 2 of the Decision on amendments to the Decision on supervisory reports of credit institutions, Official Gazette 108/2022, which enters into force on 1 January 2023.
